- A. We are to spread the fragrance of the knowledge of Christ in every place. (14)
 - B. We are the aroma of life to those who are being saved. (15,16)
 - C. We are the aroma of death to those who are perishing. (15,16)
 - D. We are not peddlers of God's word like some are. (17)
 - E. We are sincere ministers, commissioned by God, living and speaking in His sight. (17)
- II. As competent ministers, we are validated by the lives of those we lead. (2 Corinthians 3:1-3)
- A. They are our letters of recommendation. (1, 2)
 - B. They are letters that all can read. (1, 2)
 - C. They are letters from Christ. (3)
 - 1. They are letters written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God.

 - C. Our covenant is not of the letter, but of the Spirit. (6)

- IV. As competent ministers, we are given a superior and more glorious ministry. (2 Corinthian 3:7-11)
- A. It is a ministry of life, not death. (7, 8)
 - B. It is a ministry of righteousness, not condemnation. (9)
 - C. It is a ministry that is eternal, not temporal. (10-11)
- V. As competent ministers, we are bold in revealing the full glory of Christ. (2 Corinthians. 3:12-16)
- A. The veil was worn by Moses to typify Israel's inability to see the full truth of God's revelation. (12-13)
 - 1. They could not see the temporary nature of the Mosaic Law.
 - 2. They could not see its fulfillment in Christ.
 - B. The veil represents the blindness of all who try to understand the Old Testament without Christ. (14-15)
 - C. The veil is removed when we turn to Christ, so we can see God's saving grace is fulfilled in Christ. (16)
- VI. As competent ministers, we are liberated in Christ through the Holy Spirit. (2 Corinthians 3:17, 18)
- A. Liberty is having Christ live in us through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. (17)
